Youth Market Livestock Rules and Regulations - Berlin Livestock Committee Revised, January 2019

1. To be eligible to show market livestock, Youth members must be an active youth member.
2. Age is as of January 1 of project year. A youth member may continue in the project through the year in which they are 19 years of age. *Addendum to the 2021 year, grandfathering in the senior showmen who aged out at the 2020 year due to the COVID Pandemic.
3. A Youth member may show and are limited to two different market project species countywide each year. Example: one feeder calf and one pen of rabbits, but not a feeder calf and a market steer. Other animals may be raised and shown in classes other than the market classes but not sold at the Youth auction. Member may weigh-in or tag 2 steers and select 1 to take to final weigh-in (family steer – this goes for hogs as well).
4. Youth members must complete the required market livestock notebook and have it judged at the scheduled time as established by the Youth livestock committee. Pictures with the child and project are also a requirement, exhibitor must be in show attire. Projects must sell at the Youth Livestock Auction if it meets the requirements of the project.
5. Adequate housing and facilities must be available as each member is required to feed, care for and train their own animal with guidance and assistance if necessary. It should be the member's responsibility -- not the parents or other family members -- to see that the project is carried out satisfactorily.

6. Participation in Showmanship classes is required to be eligible for the market classes. The same person may win showmanship classes as often as earned. There are no restrictions on the number of showmanship honors that a Youth member can win.
7. Market livestock Youth members may participate in no other county's fair. Example: If they show beef, sheep or swine at the Berlin fair, they may not show any species at the Muskegon or Kent County fair.
8. Conduct Policy: Any Youth member, Youth leader, Youth parent, Youth guest or Youth volunteer participating in a Youth sponsored activity must abide by the rules of the Conduct Policy set forth by the Ottawa County Youth Council.
9. Dress code for pictures, showing and selling market livestock shall be leather shoes (hard-toed preferred), neat and attractive slacks or trousers collared and buttoned shirt without writing, and no hats. While in the barns or working with animals, shoes must be worn at all times. No bare midriffs, no flip flops, no low cut blouses allowed at any time. These will be enforced.
10. Individual groups are encouraged to meet at least once a month while the project is in progress. Rate of Gain contest will be based on individual weight gain for goats and lambs.

BERLIN FAIR STILL EXHIBIT AUCTION

(Open to Youth members only, excludes open class entries)

The Still Exhibit Auction is open to any Youth member that is competitive age.

Each member can choose ONE of the 5 items that they have chosen on their premium sheet as their auction item.

The selected Auction Item must be clearly stated on the premium sheet that is handed in prior to the fair. This is so that an Auction List can be printed out for the auction.

Members must be present at time of auction to be eligible to sell their project.

Auction items will be displayed in the front of the Still Exhibit Building. All Auction items must be displayed in this area to make it easier for people to see what is available. If the item to be auctioned off won at County Honors, it must be displayed in the Auction area with the large Green Honors Ribbon. (Make sure that you ask for the Green Honors Ribbon so that it can be displayed with your project.)

Baked Goods intended as the Member's Auction item must be brought in the night of judging as specified in the baked goods guidelines in the fair book, Dept. 61, Sec 61, Youth Culinary Arts.

For baked goods that will be auctioned off, the baked good must be brought in fresh the day of the Auction. For the display area, the Youth member must present an 8 x 10 COLOR photo of themselves with the baked good item. This photo must be turned in the night of judging. Attached to the back of the Photo, they must supply the recipe for their baked good.

Any baked good brought into the auction area must be in an air tight container or securely wrapped in Cellophane/Saran Wrap.

4% of the auction selling price will go back to the Berlin Fair Board to help cover the cost of the Auctioneer, printed materials, etc.

We would like parents, and leaders to help with the auction. In order to make this a success, the more people willing to volunteer, will help to insure a more successful auction for the members. There will be sign-up sheets available to volunteer for this.

The Auction is planned to happen after Super Showmanship on Saturday July 10th, 2021 at 5:00 pm.
